

GNHWPCA Storm Surge Map

Map created using GNHWPCA's GIS Enterprise System. It illustrates those properties in our service area that may be subject to flooding in response to increasing projections of potential storm surge elevations.

As storm surge elevations increase the additional areas subject to flooding also increase from light blue to dark pink.

This information is used for emergency preparedness planning and response.

Map nominated by ESRI for publication.

